Care worker Dawn honoured for 25 years of caring service

A CARE worker has received an award for 25 years of dedicated service to elderly people in Skelmersdale.

Dawn Cannell started working at Aaron Crest Care Home, on Tanhouse Road, just a year after it opened in 1993.

She joined in November 1994 as a care assistant, a role she held for 18 years, before becoming a laundry assistant for two years and then head housekeeper for the past five years.

To mark her milestone at the home, Hill Care Group regional manager Sophie Gardiner presented Dawn with a bouquet of flowers, a certificate and a bottle of wine.

Dawn said: "I live just around the corner from the home, so it's always been convenient for me to get to work.

"The staff and residents are like a second family to me. All the staff look out for each other and get on really well. Continued inside

BURSCOUGH TO BETHLEHEM!

Decorating duo spread Christmas cheer around the globe with new business

Report by Danielle Thompson

Right: Southport's Christmas tree

A FESTIVE decorating couple who only opened their new business in Burscough earlier this year, are celebrating after seeing their designs commissioned around the globe - from Bethlehem to Los Angeles!

Jan Clayton, 53, and Steve Clayton, 56, who own Christmas decorations and lighting company IllumiDex UK Ltd, have had a 'bumper year' culminating in their work being seen on the Bethlehem Christmas Tree and even at the blockbuster movie premier of The Grinch in LA.

The pair, who have six children between them, have been manufacturing large scale Christmas Decorations at their family engineering company, SC Wrought Iron Designs Ltd, for the past five years - but for other companies around the UK.

The pair worked tirelessly to help create winter wonderlands far and wide, manufacturing hundreds of commercial Christmas decorations before taking the plunge and forming their own festive lighting and installation company in March.

Their success can also be seen a little closer to their Burscough base - in their hometown of Southport where Jan and Steve have installed tens of thousands of lights, displays and the town's 16 metre state-of-the-art LED Pixel Christmas tree for the 2019 Christmas festivities.

Among the company's countless designs which they have manufactured is the star for the enormous Christmas tree in Manger Square, Bethlehem, while they were also commissioned to design a bespoke tree for the premiere of Benedict Cumberbatch's 'The Grinch' in Los Angeles.

Steve said: "It truly has been our dream to open our own Christmas decorations and lighting and installation company and we are especially delighted, among our many successes, to have been given the contract to light up the entirety of our hometown of Southport.

Runners to brave 5k challenge on Christmas Day morning!

The festive runners at the 2018 Ormskirk Christmas Day parkrun.

Report by Henry James

FOUR 'parkrun' events in Ormskirk, Skelmersdale and Southport have confirmed their festive season calendar of events - including Christmas Day morning!

Organisers are encouraging participants, both old and new to get involved in the fun.

Ormskirk parkrun, held at Edge Hill University, will be hosting its now traditional Christmas Day 5km run at 9am, with parkrunners from all over West Lancashire attending for a bit of pre-Christmas Day exercise, plus a quick carol or two.

Southport will also be donning the Santa hats for a Christmas Day event at 9am.

On New Year's Day there will be a chance to 'do the double', with a parkrun starting at Edge Hill at 9am, followed by Tawd Valley (Skelmersdale) parkrun's New Year special at 10.30am, starting from next to Skelmersdale Library, or at Southport parkrun (also 10.30am).

Of course, there is no need to complete two and parkrunners can choose to do one, two or are welcome to don hi-viz for a bit of seasonal marshalling.

The usual 5k parkruns will take place at 9am on December 28 and January 4 at the venues.

For younger parkrunners, 2km events will take place at Skelmersdale on Sunday, December 29 and then on January 5. All begin at 9am.

Commenting on the festive plans, Tawd Valley event director Paul Cotterill said: "All the parkrun teams in the area are looking forward immensely to putting on the runs over Christmas and New Year.

"This will be our first New Year event at Tawd Valley, and it will be a great opportunity for people who've not yet joined in to do, whether or not as part of a New Year's resolution."

To take part in parkrun, just go to www.parkrun.org.uk to register, and print off a barcode. Turn up 15 minutes before the event starts for a quick briefing, and you're ready to go.

It's all free. 5km parkruns are for adults and children, with under 11s needing adult accompaniment. The 2km parkrun at Skelmersdale is designed specifically for 4 to 14 year olds, and children can run on their own or with an adult.

Two men charged with burglaries over four month period

TWO men have been charged with committing burglaries in the Merseyside and West Lancs areas over a four month period.

Lewis Smith, 29, of Pauline Walk, Fazakerley, and Patrick Symes, 30, currently a serving prisoner at HM Prison Hindley, Manchester, appeared at Sefton Magistrates Court on December 11.

Both men spoke only to confirm their personal details.

The single charge against each of them states that they conspired together to commit burglaries of dwellings with intent to steal between October 15, 2018 and February 28 of this year.

The magistrates sent the matter to Liverpool Crown Court for a hearing on January 8.

Attempted armed robbery at Skem nightclub

POLICE are investigating a terrifying attempted armed robbery in Skelmersdale.

The incident happened at about 9.40pm on Monday, December 16 outside Jynx nightclub on Witham Road.

Two men approached a member of staff and demanded cash while brandishing what appeared to be a handgun.

The victim refused to hand the cash to them and the offenders made off empty handed down Witham Road towards Sandy Lane shopping centre.

The first offender is described as 5ft 9in tall, medium build wearing black clothing. He spoke with a local accent. The second offender is described as 6ft tall, slim, wearing black clothing. Both men had their faces partially covered.

Detectives are carrying out a number of enquiries including looking at CCTV in a bid to identify the offenders, but they are also appealing for the public's help.

Detective Sgt Diane Higham, of South CID, said: "This must have been a terrifying experience for the victim and although they were fortunately not physically injured it is concerning that the offenders were at least prepared to carry a firearm.

"I would appeal to anyone who has any information to get in touch."

Anyone with information should contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Burscough to become a town council - the first in West Lancashire

BURSCOUGH Parish Council has announced it is to become a town council from the beginning of next year, making it the first town council in West Lancashire.

The parish council,which is also the first in the borough to have its own Neighbourhood Plan, voted unanimously to make the change following the advice of an independent auditor.

The auditor recommended the change as the population of Burscough has now exceeded 10,000 and the growth is set to continue to grow due to the Yew Tree Farm development. Burscough is a similar size to the parishes of Maghull and Penwortham which both have town councils, the auditor noted.

Report by Kenny Parker

Though the change won't bring any practical changes in the day-to-day working of the local council, or cost any more money, parish council clerk Jackie Maguire said the size of the parish will be better reflected by a town council at the Burscough council.

Jackie said: "Because we have a Neighbourhood Plan and over 10,000 residents and because we are passionate to represent the public in the area we just felt that it was the right thing to do."

Unlike at Maghull and Penwortham, the parish council has opted to maintain a chairperson rather than have a mayor,

The parish council's current chairperson, Councilor Brian Kennedy said: "On behalf of the parish council I would like to say that it is now in the best interests of residents that this change in status takes place and it will become effective from January 1 2020."

Burscough Parish Council meets at 7pm every second Wednesday of the month at The Grove Community Centre on Station Approach, Burscough. However, due to the Christmas holiday period, the first meeting as a town council will be on Wednesday, January 22.

MP - we did listen here in West Lancs

ROSIE Cooper MP has commented on the process which will see the next Labour leader selected after the demise of Jeremy Corbyn.

Jeremy Corbyn is to stand down as Labour leader "early next year," and the race to replace him could start on January 7.

The Champion asked Rosie Cooper, who she thought should succeed Jeremy Corbyn, but she declined to reveal her thoughts just yet. However she did comment: "The terrible results for Labour at this General Election show that the party did not listen to the public, and that is something we need to get much better at.

MP Rosie Cooper

"In this constituency, I believe we did listen, we listened hard and while it is very difficult at times because there are a lot of different opinions on many issues I do my best to hear what people are saying. I will always keep my word.

"Our next leader will need to work hard to regain the ground we have lost in our heartlands and beyond, and will need to be able to listen, connect and engage with the electorate.

"I look forward to seeing who puts their name in the hat in the coming weeks."

Emily Thornberry has already entered the race with Lisa Nandy, Yvette Cooper and Sir Keir Starmer among other Labour MPs ready to stand for leader.

Christmas duo make their mark

"All our decorations are manufactured locally, employing family and people from around the area and we even have two fantastic young apprentices from Southport College who have worked so hard to help make Southport a winter wonderland this Christmas.

"But the work doesn't stop when the lights go on and we certainly won't be switching off! Our focus now is to build on what has been an incredible year for our family run businesses with the aim of becoming one of the leading British festive decoration companies in the UK.

"We are very lucky that our work has taken us around the world and Southport's iconic pixel tree has inspired countless cities around Europe, including Milan and Madrid, who have seen our fabulous displays in Southport and created similar designs which is a very big compliment!"

"Jan and myself cannot wait to get started on designs for next year and I'm sure there's yet another perfect 'lightbulb moment' for our next incredible display coming soon."

Champion staff donate goods to food bank

STAFF at Champion newspapers have bought much-needed items for Skelmersdale Food Bank.

Employees donated a range of goods, such as: sugar; cup-a-soups; custard; pot noodles; pasta sauces; and tinned carrots.

The Skelmersdale Food Bank, which is part of the Trussell Trust, has distribution centres in the town at the Ecumenical Centre; Trinity Methodist church; and at the Oaks church.

Tim Bleazard, who is the project manager at the centre, said: "The Trussell Trust has been inundated with requests and has seen a 19% increase in people requiring emergency three day food parcels in the last year. We are not expecting that increase to stop or reverse.

"This morning we have had company after company, charity groups and schools giving donations. It is quite incredible the generosity of some people. However there is a real need in Skelmersdale for a Food Bank.

"I want to thank our volunteers, it is amazing the time and effort people put in to help. Through their efforts we can continue to meet the increasing need of people.

Sharon Thompson from Champion Newspapers and Tim Bleazard, project manager at Skelmersdale Food Bank, with the items Champion staff donated

"We are so grateful for the donation from the Champion. It will be put to good use. All donations make a real difference to people's lives. Hunger is a basic human need."

Service award for caring Dawn

"When I started, we had to wear the paper hats and would have to make them up every day. They were a nightmare, as every time you had to bath someone, the hat would fall off into the bath. Thankfully that has changed.

"I've always had a huge respect for the elderly generation. They are wonderful people who want to be loved and cared for and that makes me proud that we can achieve that for someone in our care.

"I'm so grateful to Hill Care and the rest of the staff at Aaron Crest for making me feel so special on my 25th work anniversary. The gifts are lovely."

Sophie said: "Dawn is a much-loved member of staff who has been at the home longer than anyone.

"Her dedication and love for her work are exemplary. She always has a smile on her face and is amazing with the residents. The 25 years' service award is the least we could do for such hard-working and dedicated member of the team."

Locals urged to wrap up the year by recycling their festive rubbish!

Report by Henry James

WEST Lancs residents are being urged to recycle their festive rubbish to help the environment.

Anyone who is having a Christmas clean-up around their home is being asked to recycle the likes of wrapping paper, Christmas cards and even festive lights.

County Councillor Albert Atkinson, Lancashire County Council cabinet member with responsibility for waste management, said: "I'd ask everyone to help reduce the amount of waste we generate this Christmas, and to take that little bit of time needed to make sure they put everything that can be recycled in the right bin."

Recycling over Christmas is likely to increase

People can find full details of which items to put in which bin at the website: www.lancashire.gov.uk/waste.

Most plastic sweet tubs can now be recycled at home, alongside plastic bottles and other clean pots, tubs and trays.

Clean aluminium foil trays, cardboard boxes and plastic trays used for mince pies can also be recycled.

Wrapping paper can also be recycled if it passes the scrunch test – if you can scrunch it and it stays in a ball without springing back, it can be recycled. If it doesn't stay in a ball it can't be recycled.

Plain Christmas cards and cardboard boxes can be recycled in your recycling bin, as well as Christmas tree lights.

If your old lights stop working, if they have a plug or use batteries, do not put them in your waste bin. They need to be disposed of at your local household waste recycling centre.

Find out when your local recycling centre is open here: www.lancashire.gov.uk/waste.

Council to change bin collection dates

WEST Lancs council has given details of services over the Christmas and New Year period including changes to refuse and recycling collections.

The council offices at Derby Street, Ormskirk, and in Skelmersdale will close at 12 noon Tuesday, December 24 and re-open at 9am on Thursday, January 2. This includes the council's Customer Service Point at the Concourse Shopping Centre.

The revised collection dates for grey, blue and green bins are as follows:

Collections due on Christmas Day will be made on Tuesday, December 24, and collections due to be made on Boxing Day will now be made on Friday December 27. Collections due on New Years Day will take place on Thursday, January 2.

You can find out how to access other council operations, including how Revenues and Benefits, Emergency Housing and Leisure Services, by visiting the website: www.westlancs.gov.uk/christmas.

Football's coming home! United are back in town after two long years away

...and first match for Skem in their new stadium is a Boxing Day derby!

Report by Henry James

SKELMERSDALE United are to play their first home game in the town for more than two years when they face local rivals Burscough on Boxing Day at their new stadium - the JMO Sports Park.

United, who currently play in the North West Counties League Premier Division, have been playing 'home' matches some 10 miles away at Prescot Cables' ground following a dispute with the owners of their previous home at Staveley Road in 2017.

The club are delighted to be back in Skelmersdale at the JMO Sports Park stadium at the Blaguegate Playing Fields site and they will face the Linnets on Thursday, December 26, kick off 3pm.

The club's chairman, Paul Griffiths, said: "We are over the moon to be returning to the town after two long years. To get to this stage there has been a lot of hard work from many people.

"There have been many brickbats thrown at us, but we have battled hard and fought away."

Planning permission for the new ground was granted by the borough council, subject to conditions, earlier this year.

He added: "We will be working on the ground up to the last minute.

"It has been a tremendously difficult time and the financial burden has been immense. We have struggled to get support from local business, but now we are back home, we hope we can get the support from those businesses again.

One of the stands at the new stadium, and inset, Skelmersdale United chairman Paul Griffiths, who has helped to erect the structure in time for Boxing Day.

"We have been working to get back home for the derby against Burscough.

"Burscough Independent Supporters, who have been barred from their home games, have been invited down as guest of honour for this game. Their on-going financial support has been extremely helpful.

"To come back to Skelmersdale is very important. If we had not come back we would have been dissolved. You are only allowed to ground share for two years.

"We now have a good academy and we need to be back home to get the community back on board again."

The club is hoping to see old and new faces at their new ground. Paul commented: "We are hoping that many of our supporters who could not get to Prescot because of the extra cost return. Every day we have been asked when are we playing our first game in the town.

"I would urge people to come along and enjoy their football. There is going to be an atmosphere which is unique.

"We want young people to come and see this game because they are the future."

Match admission prices are: Adult £6, Concessions £4 and children under 16 free when accompanied by a paying adult.

Free pub grub for elderly!

THE Red Lion pub on Ash Brow, Newburgh, hosted a free lunch to bring together the elderly at Christmas time.

Guests were treated to Christmas songs performed by The Skelmersdale Community Singers and children from Newburgh Primary school.

Pub manger Nichola Scott said: "We would like to thank all of the local businesses that have helped us raise funds for this event."

RSPCA urges locals to be responsible if they bought pets as gifts

Report by Henry James

THE RSPCA is urging West Lancashire residents to be responsible if they bought pets for Christmas after new figures show the number of animals that were abandoned in December last year.

There were 416 animals reported as abandoned in the North West in December 2018 and more than 4,000 animals were dumped during the festive season across England and Wales.

Lancashire saw 115 abandoned animals reported to the RSPCA's cruelty line over the festive month last year.

Sadly, the charity is already caring for many animals abandoned around the country this festive season.

The RSPCA is urging people to help them care for animals spending Christmas in its centres and hospitals with its Stock the Sleigh campaign, asking for help providing anything from food, medicine, to a warm blanket, treats and toys.

Dermot Murphy, Chief Inspectorate Officer at the RSPCA, said: "Christmas is a busy time for us, as sadly cruelty and abandonments do not stop over the festive season and our staff work tirelessly to rescue and care for animals in need.

"Last year, there were 1,684 dogs reported as abandoned in December and 1,678 abandoned in January, and there were more dogs than any other animal being abandoned over the festive period. We understand that people's circumstances can change which may mean they can no longer cope with their pet but there is never an excuse to abandon any animal like this, as there are other options available to people who are struggling to care for their pets.

Kittens recovered by the RSPCA

"Dumping a pet leaves the animal extremely scared and vulnerable, especially in the cold winter months.

"We would urge anyone considering getting a pet to think carefully about whether they have the time, care, patience, and resources to care for that animal for the rest of their life and if you feel you really do, then please consider giving a rescue pet a second chance this new year."

Hundreds of carol singers bring festive feel to Parbold Village Hall event

THE 'Annual Carol Singing Round the Tree' event took place on Wednesday, December 4 outside Parbold Village Hall.

The evening opened with the switching on of the Christmas Tree lights by James, a pupil at Our Lady's school in the village.

Parbold Parish Council gave a £100 donation this year for the Red Admiral Music Academy who provided the music for the evening and played a Christmas medley.

Bev Hayman, who is one of the organisers, said: "I would like to say thank you to Parbold Parish Council for their kind donation."

There were many people who took part including: Junior Sing 4 fun; the children and teachers from both Parbold Douglas Academy and Our Lady and All Saints.

The Christ Church puppets joined the group again this year with Elvis and the Crackers dancing to Rock Around the Christmas tree.

There was also a bible reading from Rev David Bennet, a short address from Rev Sue Timmins and a Christmas poem by Bev Hayman.

Bev added: "The carol singing event was very well supported with around 250 - 300 people joining together to sing a selection of Christmas carols. Warm mince pies and mulled wine was served in the village hall afterwards to the adults with juice and biscuits for the children.

"Thank you for all your support and may I, and the team who coordinated the event with the help of Parbold Unlimited, wish you all a very Merry Christmas and happy and healthy 2020."

Both young and old took part in the carol singing

Businesses answer appeal to help children's hospice

A LOCAL cleaning business has helped a funeral director's appeal for gifts for sick children and youngsters staying in a refuge by collecting donations from the companies it cleans for.

Poppies UK, based in Ormskirk, worked with Burscough's MLS Independent Funeral Directors Christmas appeal for gifts for The Liberty Centre and Claire House Children's Hospice.

12 businesses from the Ormskirk and Skelmersdale area contributed to the appeal with some businesses also donating anonymously.

The Liberty Centre provides a range of services for victims of domestic violence and abuse in West Lancs, including a refuge for women and children.

Carole Swanton Manager of Poppies said: "We would like to thank all the businesses who have supported this initiative at Christmas and we believe Liberty Centre and Claire House to be two excellent charities who we have engaged with along with MLS Funeral Directors."

Motorists urged to leave room for council gritters when parking

Report by Kenny Parker

LANCASHIRE County Council is urging motorists to park carefully and leave enough room for gritting vehicles to get past when freezing weather or snow strikes.

The authority says that parts of some gritting routes often go untreated because drivers don't leave enough room for the gritters.

Highways teams have recently put up temporary warning signs on lampposts in areas where poor parking is most problematic.

Ridwan Musa, Lancashire County Council highways manager, said: "We know there is pressure on parking in some areas, but we'd ask people to think carefully about how they park and leave room for a gritter to get past.

"It's a real problem in some places, where more often than not the gritter can't get past, with the driver having no option but to reverse and miss out part of the planned route.

"Not being able to grit can leave these roads slippery, particularly when snow is forecast and the grit helps to stop the snow from sticking to the road – it can be the difference between the snow turning to slush as traffic mixes in the salt and becoming much less of an issue, and the snow being compacted into ice and causing problems."

The council says that parked cars are most often a problem for the gritters on residential streets in towns and villages, with drivers saying they can't treat some hotspots around 90% of the time. Parking on corners is a particular problem as it means the gritters don't have room to turn.

Members of Lancashire County Council's gritting team with signs often used in problem parking areas.

The gritters typically used in urban areas are around 3 metres wide and 8m long. However, if a plough is fitted to clear snow, the gritter becomes 3.2 metres wide and 9.5m long.

On top of the 1,800 miles of priority roads which are gritted whenever a freeze is forecast, the county council has also identified the second most important roads which are treated during periods of continuous ice and snow, but only during daylight hours and after the higher priority roads have been cleared. These routes include many residential roads where poorly parked cars could block access for the gritters.

WISHING ALL A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Hundreds enjoy festive fair to help raise nearly £2k for church cause

Report by Kenny Parker

MORE than 300 people flocked to All Saints Primary School, in Appley Bridge, for the All Saints Church Christmas Fair.

The event was so well supported that it raised £1,700 for the church, described by church leaders as a significant contribution to the annual costs of the church's ministry.

The school hall and adjacent classroom was packed with people as they enjoyed various stalls, selling books, cards, cakes, plants, and soft toys and took part in games and a tombola.

Food, including hotpot and ham hock soup, was provided by Wigan food charity Fur Clempt. Children were also given the opportunity to see Santa and the church's new craft group stall, which started up earlier this year, proved a big hit.

All Saints Vicar the Rev Sue Timmins said: "We are so grateful for the support we received at the church's Christmas Fair. This was not really about the amount of money we raised, but about All Saints church enjoying being part of our wider Appley Bridge community.

Volunteer at the fair Dianne Green dressed as a Christmas pixie.

"We welcomed some 300 people to the event, and the atmosphere was lovely throughout. It is a major opportunity to share life and faith, to build relationships and to help people to feel welcome by our church family."

Christmas is going to be a lot merrier than I expected

A MERRY Christmas to you all, and a happy New Year.

It's certainly going to be a merrier and happier time for me than I expected, or perhaps had a right to expect.

I now have a fully functional home, completely (and expertly) rewired and with years of accumulated junk ditched for good. Lovely. Well, when I say 'fully functional' I suppose this isn't quite so.

The wire where my landline telephone enters the house was inadvertently cut during the work, and my TV's coaxial connection has fallen to bits so I need professional help with that one also.

But am I downhearted - NO.

Me and my lovely dogs Tina and Cinders will be able to enjoy a Christmas Day feast of roasted duck and all the trimmings in comfort.

Did I say 'lovely dogs?' Make that my lovely Tina.

Cinders is in the dog house following a recent incursion (before the fridge was working) resulting in a pork steak meant for my dinner (cooked) going into the greedy little hairy object's tummy instead. She really is a canine waste unit - though faulty in that she sees no difference between waste and the good stuff.

There is one small drawback.

All this has cost quite a lot and I now find cash reserves severely dented.

And I still need some carpeting as well as several household items which disappeared in the big clear-out.

Mind you when I see people trying to sleep on the streets on a freezing cold night I really do wake up to the fact that I could never imagine the utter misery this must be.

I simply do not feel qualified say what should be done to alleviate such a stain on our society.

There are, surely, bags of folk employed to sort out this kind of disaster, and enough politicians to supply the cash needed - a mile or two of a new motorway spending could surely be diverted!

Oh, and as a postscript to my home improvements, I don't know which energy supplier you presently use - but if it is anything like mine then I can only hope that no faults develop over Christmas - or for that matter at any time of the year. Just try phoning them - but best book a short holiday while you wait to get through.

You are offered a 'service' to join the queue, which sounds like a good idea.

You just have to punch in your home phone number and are given an estimated time when they will ring you back. I tried that and was told the call should come between 17 and 30 minutes.

It never did. Or put it this way it hadn't when I ran out of patience more than an hour later.

By a happy coincidence though, all this was going on while electricians were in the house and one listened to my tale of woe.

He said to leave it to him. He had a secret emergency number which the public were not allowed to use.

He got through in 30 seconds flat, explained that they would be finishing their work in the next few hours.

But even then he was told I'd need to phone them and tell them when all was ready so an engineer could inspect not the actual work done but the certificate from qualified electricians.

My electrical chum offered to relay the relevant parts to them but no, only their presence would allow them to fit their own main power fuse (as opposed to the perfectly good one my electricians had been using.)

In the end he used the 'secret number' again pointing out that I was a 73 year old pensioner and they promised to send someone out within two hours.

Which they did (just). So a very Merry Christmas to Scottish Power. Bah, Humbug!

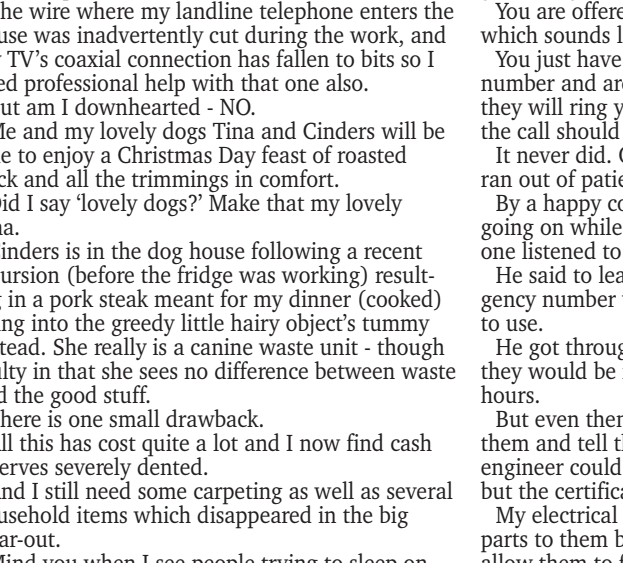
Martin Mere news



A wondrous winter at Martin Mere
With winter in full swing, our reserve is a real treasure trove of wildlife. The festive break is the perfect time to get outside and walk off those Christmas treats! On the mere there's a whole host of birds ranging from wigeon and teal to whooper swans and pink footed geese. Come and watch the spectacle of the 3pm swan feed from the Discovery Hide, there's a warden's talk too!
With the cold weather comes an influx of hungry birds who struggle to get their own food in winter. Thankfully, we have a large number of bird feeders around the centre to ensure the birds get the nutrition they need. Our Janet Kear Hide and Kingfisher Hide are great for watching the comings and goings of smaller birds such as chaffinch, goldfinch and blue tit.
One of our biggest draws over the winter are the whooper swans which have migrated over from Iceland. As a charity passionate about conservation, our staff do a lot of work with this species. We have a team of Swan Research Volunteers who keep track of the comings and goings of the swans on the mere.
Bring the kids and get involved with our Tale of Two Swans event. There's a free activity book packed with swan-themed activities. Head through our replica swan pipe and learn all about what happens when we do a swan catch at the centre. Take your swan measurements and create your own swan ring to wear as you explore our wetlands. Don't forget to try swan spotting at the Discovery Hide, how many rings can you read?
These beautiful swans only stay with us for the winter, so make sure you come and see them while you can. Wrap up warm and spend some time in the great outdoors this winter. Find out more and plan your visit at wwt.org.uk/martin-mere

Third generation of German mud-plugger is available now

VOLKSWAGEN has added three new trim levels to its Touareg off-roader.

The SE is the new entry-level option for the third generation of the German mud-plugger, which helps to bring the starting price down to £45,445, and available with a choice of two three-litre turbodiesel V6s.

There's also a new mid-range SEL Tech version, which throws in gadgets like a self-opening tailgate, and on the new Black Edition model there's a full-length panoramic sunroof.

Go to volkswagen.co.uk for more details of the entire Touareg range.

This latest Grandland X ditches four-wheel-drive to be kinder to the environment

Hybrid version does away with its four-wheel-drive

VAUXHALL has just launched a hybrid version of its Grandland X that also does away with four-wheel-drive to save fuel costs.

The new version is a plug-in hybrid that can do 34 miles on electricity alone, with the batteries taking care of driving around town and the 1.6-litre petrol engine kicking in for longer drives.

Prices for this front-wheel-drive version of the small off-roader start at £32,390 and it's available to order now, with the first cars arriving here in April next year.
